

| | | |
|--|-------------------|---|
| | Object: | Kit violin |
| | Museum: | Zenetörténeti Múzeum Táncsics Mihály u. 7. 1014 Budapest (36-1) 214-6770 / 253 zti.muzeum@abtk.hu |
| | Collection: | Hangszergyűjtemény |
| | Inventory number: | H 2016.08.01. |

Description

Unkwonw kit violin, without label.

The kit violin, dancing master's kit, or kit, is a stringed instrument. It is essentially a very small violin, designed to fit in a pocket – hence its other common name, the pochette (French for small pocket). It was used by dance masters in royal courts and other places of nobility, as well as by street musicians until around the 18th century.

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Measurements: Height: 57 cm; Widht: 13 cm; Dept: 6 cm;

Keywords

- kordofon hangszer - chordofon musical instrument
- vonós hangszer - bowed string instrument